

Artist Joe Di Guiseppi Paints Mural at Shelter Rock Winery Winemaking Club

By GABRIELA PEREIRA (Open Post) July 15, 2014

---

Artist Joe Di Guiseppi receives a little assistance from Isabel and Marina Petretta, daughters of Giovanni Petretta, owner of Shelter Rock Winery Club. The Shelter Rock Winery Winemaking club offers members the unique opportunity to handcraft their own wine, from one case to a full barrel. The head winemaker, Giovanni Petretta, will guide you through the process using state-of-the-art equipment to create a wine to suit your individual taste.

Artist Joe Di Guiseppi a professional muralist brings a little piece of Italy to the entrance of the Shelter Rock Winery Club, Danbury's first urban winery. Besides being a mural painter he is also an art teacher at the Escape to the Arts in Danbury and at The village center for the arts, in New Milford CT. Now with an attention grabbing entrance, Joe's mural will attract more potential wine lovers to the Shelter Rock Winery Club.

For more information contact Giovanni Petretta
(203) 744-9488 <http://shelterrockwinery.com/>